

The Maa Guest House is a privately owned 4-bedroom guest house nestled between the Naboisho and Olare Motorogi Conservancies in the Masai Mara. The Guest House is taken on an exclusive basis (min 2 adults) and will be your home away from home. Sit back and enjoy the vast landscape in front of you with swifts, who nest in the roof, diving for insects, wildebeest and zebra wandering by and watch the show that is the Mara unfold.

The Main Guest House sleeps 8 people - three double/twin rooms, and one smaller bedroom with a standard double bed. The Luxury Tent sleeps 2 people and is situated a short walk away from the main guest house. It offers guests further privacy with amazing views. The guest house is run by a manager and their team and is fully catered. Visit Maa Guest House.

The guest house is situated next to the new The Maa Trust headquarters. The Maa Trust is a non-profit organization working together with community-owned wildlife conservancies in the Maasai Mara, Kenya. They work towards conserving the beautiful Maasai Mara Ecosystem by empowering the Maasai communities who live within it through their three pillars: Education and Child Protection, Water and Health, and Sustainable Livelihoods.
